Happy Chinese New Year!
Happy Valentine's Day!

You Name It; AWP Makes It!

Perfect customization is our principle. If you discuss with us in advance, we can definitely satisfy your needs. Today, our guest held his birthday party in our restaurant. He ordered steam crabs, braised pork knuckles, seafood hot pot and other delicious cuisine. Few days ago, another couple would like to try the fruit bat, and we prepared the best bat they've ever tasted.

Chinese New Year, we always expect red envelopes most, which represent good luck and happiness. AWP prepared red envelopes with delicate gold coin chocolates at the first day of Chinese New Year to share the fortune with our guests and also wished everything going well with them in the coming year.

How did we celebrate Valentines with our guests? We burned the night oil to weave the lucky bracelets by coconut leaves wishing every Jack has his Jane. There were two guests asking us to give them more, because they would like to bring those lucky bracelets back to Taiwan for their parents 😊

Hide and Seek at the Lobby

We never know our lobby could be so interesting! The cute little boy from Japan hid himself when his mother was talking with the receptionist at the front desk. Could you find him? Behind the woodcarving? In the corner of our SPA display area? In the end, he finally realized that to hide next to his mom is the best place!

Lovely Italian Couple's Palau Adventure

This couple came from Italy, and they stayed in Palau for almost half a month. They travelled all around and checked in three times at our hotel. Few days after they checked out, we received their email with photos which we took together. We feel so sweet and happy and miss the wonderful time we had together. They taught us a lot of Italian!
